FOOD + BEVERAGE

Old Timer Restaurant & Bar

The top of Snow King mountain used to be called “Old Man’s Flats.” Folks from town would hike up it themselves for the downhill run. Those same folks helped turn “Town Hill” into “Snow King.”

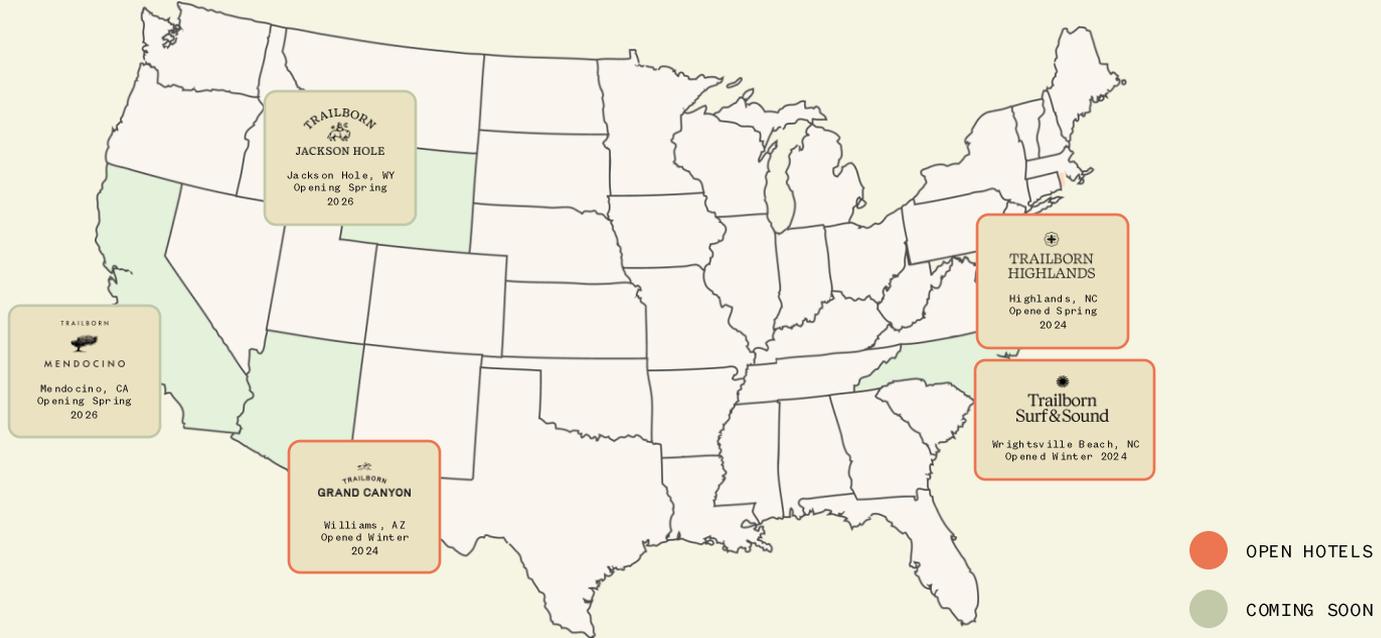

Guests can expect après forward alpine comfort food – steak frites, raclette, and a half chicken. Cocktails are crisp and classic – like a vesper, A negroni, or “perfect martini.”

Our restaurant and bar, Old Timer, speaks to the top-of-the-mountain’s first name, and also to the work-hard-play-hard, DIY history of Snow King.
